

BFA Bylaws Committee Notice of Motion
BFA Bylaws Update Reflecting Current Membership, Election, and Voting Rights
BFA-M-2-103023

Whereas Article I, Section 1, Article I, Section 2, and Article IV, Section 1 do not currently clearly

Whereas WKH % \ODZV VHFWRQRV LQ TXHVWLRQ PD\ QRW DFFXUD SURFHGXUHV IRU VRPH HOHFWRQRV

Therefore WR EULQJ WKH %) $ % \ODZV LQWR DOLJQPHQW ZLWK UHFRJQLJHG IDFXOW\ UHSUHVHQWDWLYH ERGLHV DFURVV R BFA Bylaws Committee now RYHV WKDW WKUHH FKDJJHV EH PDGH WR

1. 7KH FXUUHQW ZRUGLQJ RI WKH % \ODZV RI WKH % RXOGH FKDJJHG IURP

“Members of the Assembly must be members of the Faculty Senate. The Assembly shall consist primarily of members put forward by individual Traditional Units and Other Units. The Assembly shall also include fourteen large representatives as described in the Standing Rules, and two retired faculty representatives. (insert) Assembly members are responsible for communicating BFA business and issues to their constituents, and with bringing matters of interest from their constituents to the BFA.”

7 R

“Members of the Assembly must be members of the Faculty Senate. The Assembly shall consist primarily of members put forward by individual Traditional Units and Other Units. The Assembly shall also include fourteen large representatives as described in the Standing Rules, and two retired faculty representatives. The chair of any representative faculty FRXQFLO ZLWKLQ VFKRROV DQG FROOHJHV LV H without vote. Assembly members are responsible for communicating BFA business issues to their constituents, and with bringing matters of interest from their constituents to the BFA.”

- 2.

Boulde