

Dear Students,

BuffTutor is a network of experienced tutors from all fields of study with one goal: providing exceptional academic assistance to College and High School students. We are currently recruiting tutors and music teachers for this semester and would like to invite you to join our program. While we are primarily looking for math, science, economics/business and language tutors, we consist of tutors from all fields of study. Please visit our website to learn more about us.

Benefits of joining our network:

- Quickly and easily connect with students
